

Ellen Hamilton
Lead Land and Housing
Specialist for the Urban Development and Resilience
Unit (Urban Anchor), World Bank

Eugenie L. Birch
Co-Chair, UN World Urban Campaign and Chair, Graduate
Group of City and Regional Planning, University of Pennsylvania School of Design

David Maddox
Urban Ecologist,
The Nature of Cities

Benjamin de la Pena
Director of Community
and National Strategy,
Knight Foundation

Christine Platt
President,
Commonwealth
Association of Planners

Nicolas Bouchoud
Founding Principal,
Renaissance Urbaine

T. Luke Young
Program Coordinator,
Architecture for Humanity

Waheed Kadiri
Chairman,
African Planning
Association

Dwinita Larasati
Founder,
Bandung Creative City
Forum

Mary Rowe
Director, Urban Resilience
and Livability,
The Municipal Art Society
of New York

Speed Dating for City Builders:

Making cities more livable and Resilient

What are you waiting for? Connect with an active network of City Builders working to make their cities more livable and resilient.

Learn practical tips from a diverse mix of practitioners and bring your own success stories. Forge new partnerships and become part of an exciting new network to share what's working in your city!

Networks are connecting an ever-growing community of urban innovators, mobilizing thousands of initiatives that span cities across the global north and south, knitting together an urban ecosystem of livability and resilience. This session will highlight the role of practitioner networks in scaling urban livability and resilience.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9TH

9:45 AM - 10:45 AM

LOCATED IN THE CITY CHANGER ROOM

This event brought to you by

VISIT OUR SITE: Citybuilders.org

FOLLOW US ON TWITTER: @citybuildersnet

LIKE US ON FACEBOOK: facebook.com/citybuildersglobalnetwork

Along with these members of the CityBuilders Global Network:

